SENATE BILL No. 434

DIGEST OF SB 434 (Updated February 1, 2007 3:38 pm - DI 103)

Citations Affected: IC 9-17; IC 36-2.

Synopsis: Retirement of manufactured home titles. Requires a person who owns a manufactured home that is personal property, not held for resale, or not attached to real estate by a permanent foundation to obtain a certificate of title for the manufactured home. (Current law requires a certificate of title for manufactured homes whether owned as personal property or real property.) Requires an application for: (1) a certificate of title; or (2) an affidavit of transfer to real estate; to include certain identification numbers, if available. Provides that the bureau of motor vehicles (bureau) may issue a certificate of title or an affidavit of transfer to real estate even if the numbers are not available. Specifies that certain persons are not required to apply for an affidavit of transfer to real estate to convert a manufactured home to real property. Provides that a certificate of title or certificate of origin is not required to apply for an affidavit of transfer to real estate. Provides that the bureau may adopt rules to require additional information in an application for a certificate of title. Repeals and relocates a provision requiring an affirmation of correctness by an applicant for a certificate of title. Requires the bureau to adopt rules concerning the issuance of an affidavit to transfer a manufactured home to real estate. Provides that the filing of an affidavit of transfer of real estate is not required to convert a manufactured home to real estate.

Effective: July 1, 2007.
